

SUGGESTED TEXTS AND CONTENT RELATED TO COVID-19 FOR YOUR PARTICIPANTS

To successfully plan your event, we invite you to use the following texts for your communications with your participants. You will be able to reassure them by sharing the health measures and concrete actions taken by the Québec City Convention Centre and its team.

The content below can be used in whole or in part for your newsletters, your website, your event program or your social media. They were created to provide useful information to visitors of the Convention Centre.

Content and pages to share:

- Facebook: video of the sanitary measures at the Québec City Convention Centre
- Québec City Convention Centre website: page dedicated to participants
- Sanitary measures applied at the Quebec City Convention Centre

Images to download: www.spaces.hightail.com/space/nOXGNXNJnz

Template text:

The Québec City Convention Centre has put in place a complete range of health and sanitary measures to ensure the safe hosting of events. We look forward to seeing you at (Name of your event). We are working very closely with the Convention Centre team to ensure a safe and enjoyable event for all participants. For more information on the measures in place and to prepare your visit, we invite you to consult the following page:

www.convention.qc.ca/en/practical-information/health-sanitary-measures-covid-attend-event

You can find out about the latest COVID-19 updates and the health measures in effect at the Convention Centre at any time by referring to the page:

www.convention.qc.ca/en/covid-19-coronavirus

The Québec City Convention Centre team is available to assist you and answer your questions. Do not hesitate to contact them at: sccq@convention.qc.ca